

My Trip to The Children's Museum of Wilmington

ADVENTURE
TOGETHER

Hooray! I am going to The Children's Museum of Wilmington. I am going to play!

I can get inside two ways.

I can walk up the stairs.

Or I can go through the stroller and wheelchair entrance.

When I walk inside, I will see lots of fun things.

I will wait with my adult while we get our tickets.

When my adult tells me it is okay, I can explore the museum and play!

I will stay close to my adult and use walking feet.

I will see museum workers. They wear blue aprons. They can help me.

I will see museum volunteers. They wear purple aprons. They can help me.

I can go upstairs and downstairs two different ways.

I can walk up the stairs with my adult.

Or I can ride in the elevator with my adult.

If I need a break, I will tell my adult.

We will find a worker who will help us find a safe and quiet place.

If I need to go to the restroom, I will tell my adult.

They will help me find a restroom.

This is the Toddler Treehouse. I can climb, crawl, and slide.

This is Toothasaurus. I can be a dentist.

This is Animal Alley. I can learn how to take care of pets.

This is Ahoy Wilmington. I can be a pirate.

This is Construction Junction. I can learn about building and construction.

Safety first!

This is the Wonders of Water. I can learn about water.

I might get a little wet!

This is the Port CMOW. I can make my own train.

This is the Art Studio. I can create my own masterpiece.

This is the Bonus Room. I can learn from a museum worker at their daily programs.

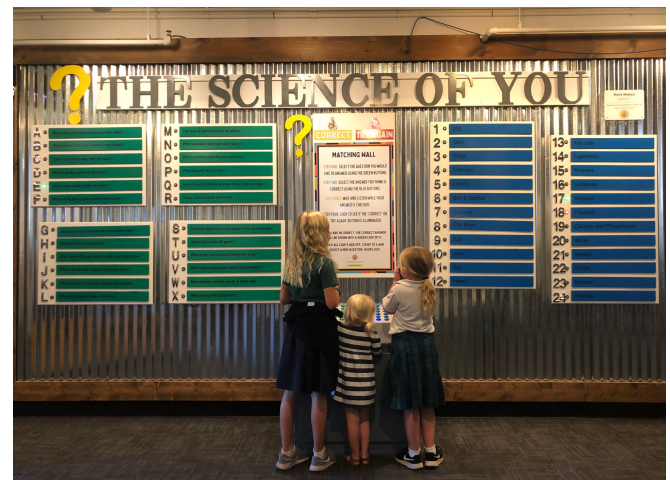

This is the Outdoor Courtyard. I can play outside.

I can go inside a school bus.

This is Skeleworld. I can learn about my body.

This is Wellness Way. I can learn how to take care of babies.

This is Virtual Reality. I can explore new places using cool equipment.

A Museum worker will help me.

This is Little Beaker's Lab. I can learn how to use a microscope.

I can see things close up!

This is the Imagination Playground.

I can play and learn about science.

This is the Community Market.

I can go grocery shopping.

This is Kid Power. I can do different exercises.

This is Discovery Diner. I can learn about healthy foods.

I can play too!

My adult will tell me when it is time to leave or I will tell my adult when I'm ready to leave.

Thank you for visiting us!

We hope to see you again soon!
